The aim of GenderMed-Wiki is to maintain the highest scientific standards in articles for our users. A review board consisting of experts in various disciplines assists us in making this possible. Each submitted article is subjected to revision by a specialist in the related area, thus allowing for optimal support on an expert level.

Experts in several disciplines have already joined the review board as members. The following colleagues support GenderMed-Wiki by assisting with the review process:

PD Dr. Jan Becker, Dr. Gudrun Beyer, Prof. Dr. Birgit Breninger, Prof. Dr. Alena Buyx, Dr. med.
